Grader Policy for Kummer College

The College will provide grading and other course support according to the following guidelines as funds allow:

- Courses with enrollment of at least 35 students may have grading support for up to 10 hours/week.
- Courses with intensive student contact hours, including, but not limited to, senior design, labs, programming and/or quantitative intensive courses with enrollment of more than 20 students may have grading and/or other course support for up to 10 hours/week. Tutoring support may not be granted if LEAD sessions are, or can be, available.

Faculty may hire grading and other course support to assist in course instruction from their own resource accounts (e.g., SRI, CEI, faculty support).

Departments may also supplement grading and other course support.
